DIAZ SURRENDERS; FORCES DISARMED

Federal Forces Recapture Vera Cruz With Very Little Resistance

EXCITEMENT OVER VICTORY

Great Astonishment Is Manifest Over Easy Manner In Which Federals Take the City—Marks End Of the Rebellion

Vera Cruz, Oct. 23.—The revolt of Gen. Felix Diaz, nephew of the exiled President, has been short lived. The town of Vera Cruz, which he occupied with about 2,000 adherents for several days, was captured by the Federal forces today. The casualties were few. Two Federal columns commanded by Col. Jiminez Castro and Gen. Joaquin Beltran entered Vera Cruz from the north and south.

There was slight opposition to their advance. Col. Castro, with less than 50 men, captured Gen. Felix Diaz, whose 300 men at police quarters refused to fire at his command. The revolutionists in the barracks have not yet surrendered. They say they will hold out until the last man is killed. However, the weaker spirits seem to be trying to escape. The killed and wounded number less than 100. No foreigners were hurt.

Instead of a great battle, everything was in a muddle. Rebels and Federals encountered each other in the streets without one knowing which side the other was affiliated with, as uniforms of all were alike.

Col. Jiminez Castro was shot in the leg during the first firing. Col. Diaz, of the 21st Infantry, who joined Gen. Diaz with his troops in the revolution, has disappeared, but an active search for him is being made.

The rebel officers have been made prisoners. It is believed they will be ordered shot by summary court martial. It is announced the soldiers will not be punished.

The United States cruiser Des Moines, sent Lieut. Burns and Passed Assistant Surgeon Cohen ashore to attend the wounded.

Capture Is Confirmed

Mexico City, Oct. 23.—The taking of Vera Cruz by the Federal forces is confirmed from all quarters. President Madero has sent the following dispatch to the Governors of all the States:

"Vera Cruz is in the hands of the loyal troops. Diaz has been taken prisoner."

There is much suppressed excitement here over the Federal victory, but little elation. On the contrary, that the movement was so quickly suppressed, has caused much surprise. The general opinion is, however, that the government success will operate greatly to strengthen the administration.

Leaders Must Pay Death Penalty.

Gen. Felix Diaz, Col. Diaz and other officers of the rebellious troops and marines will be haled immediately before a court martial and doubtless will suffer the death penalty. Orders have been issued for convening the court, which will be presided over by Gen. Beltran. Gen. Diaz, although not now a member of the army, is amenable in such court under the law, which provides for trial of any civilian under like circumstances.

Soldiers of the rebellious troops will be decimated—one in 10 being executed. They will be chosen by lot to pay the penalty for all.

This information was imparted officially tonight.

The collapse of the Diaz movement one week after its inception, with a minimum of fighting and bloodshed, has created the greatest surprise here. In administration circles, where optimism has been the keynote since the beginning, the outcome is regarded as the highest possible vindication of the confidence always expressed in the loyalty of the army.

Gen. Felix Diaz, after Gen. Reyes, has been regarded as the man who could wield the greatest influence with the army and the people generally. His rebellion ending in a fiasco only slightly less pronounced than that of Reyes last December, removes a danger which has long loomed on the political horizon.

Marks End of Movement

Washington, Oct. 23.—Reports of the re-capture of Vera Cruz by Mexican Federal forces and the surrender of General Felix Diaz and his staff with practically no show of resistance, was was received with astonishment in official circles here. It is generally believed this event marks the complete suppression of what had been looked upon as the beginning of a general rebellion involving entirely new elements.

A brief cablegram to the State Department from American Consul Canada confirmed officially the report of the re-capture of Vera Cruz by General Beltran. There was some fighting in the outskirts of town, but only enough to justify Captain Hughes, of the cruiser Des Moines, in offering medical assistance for the wounded, which was gratefully accepted.

The downfall of the Diaz movement leaves three rebellions in operation in Mexico headed respectively by Za-

Defers Trial of Schrank

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 23.—District Attorney W. C. Zabel, believed to be the only Socialist State attorney in the country, gives three reasons for deferring the trial of John Schrank, who shot Col. Roosevelt, till the December sitting of the criminal court. His reasons are: To await the result of the colonel's injury; has no desire to hurry the defendant, and thinks it unwise to call the case till after the Presidential election.

BEVERIDGE RETURNED $57,000

Senator Sent Back Contributions Made by Perkins, McLean and Pinchot, According to Evidence at Hearing.

Washington, Oct. 23.—That Senator Albert J. Beveridge returned campaign contributions amounting to $57,000 sent to him by George W. Perkins, Edward L. McLean and Gifford Pinchot, was the testimony of three witnesses examined today by the Senate Campaign Contributions Committee.

While Mr. Perkins, when examined by the committee, declared he could remember sending only $10,000 to Senator Beveridge, which was returned, today's testimony was to the effect that Senator Beveridge received and returned three checks or drafts, each for $10,000. Besides $25,000 was received from and returned to Edward L. McLean, cousin of Senator Beveridge, and either $2,500 or $3,000 was returned to Gifford Pinchot.

Larz A. Whitcomb, who had a law office with Senator Beveridge in 1904; John F. Hays, formerly Senator Beveridge's private secretary, and Peopold G. Rothschild, who was on the Indiana Republican Executive Committee in 1904, were today's witnesses. Each of them testified to having witnessed and signed copies of the letters with which Senator Beveridge returned the contributions. Mr. Rothschild said Senator Beveridge showed him the drafts from Mr. Perkins early in October before the election and announced his intention of returning the money. Mr. Rothschild said he advised holding the money until after election lest the contributors be offended and that Senator Beveridge concluded to do this. The money was returned 10 days after election.

After the committee had adjourned for the day Frank J. Hogan, representing the Progressive party in Washington, gave out a letter which he said had been telephoned him from the New York office of Mr. Perkins and which purports to be the lettel of Senator Beveridge returning the money sent him by Perkins.

The letter named no amount. It read as follows:

"Dear Old Man:—Herewith I return you untouched the splendid sum you so generously sent me to help me in the battle just won. It was noble of you George—characteristic of your great big noble heart—and I am grateful and appreciative beyond words to express. I could not use a cent of the amount you placed at my disposal and so return it to you intact.

"Do not feel offended at this; my cousin sent me a draft for $25,000 and I returned the draft to him just as I am sending the enclosed back to you.

"Your beautiful friendship, steadily proved as the years pass, is very sweet and dear to me.

"Give my regards to our mutual friend, my love to the folks at home, and believe me always, with tenderest affection, as ever, "ALBERT."

This letter, Mr. Hogan said, would be presented to the committee tomorrow for the record. Mr. Perkins when he was on the stand, was asked to furnish the committee with all correspondence between himself and Senator Beveridge, and he agreed to do so.

While the committee expected to conclude today and no further witnesses were on hand to testify, a meeting will be called tomorrow morning. Senator Pomerene desires to pursue the Beveridge matter further and telegrams have been sent to several witnesses asking when they can appear. Senator Beveridge has telegraphed he cannot reach Washington before Saturday morning. Further action of the committee will depend entirely upon the immediate availability of the witnesses.

FATE OF BECKER WITH JURY TODAY

Summing Up Completed and Judge Will Deliver Charge This Morning

ROSE'S TESTIMONY ATTACKED

McIntyre Denounces It as Unworthy of Belief—Says District Attorney Actuated by Ambition—Warmly Resented

New York, Oct. 23.—The fate of Police Lieutenant Becker, who is charged with the murder of the gambler Herman Rosenthal, will rest with the jury tomorrow. Counsel for both sides completed today the summing up, and all that remained to close the case when adjournment was taken tonight was Justice Goff's charge to the jury, to be delivered tomorrow morning.

Becker sat throughout the day with almost immobile countenance. He heard himself characterized by John F. McIntyre, his chief counsel, as the victim of a conspiracy plotted by Jack Rose, "the head of the assassins," and by Assistant District Attorney Moss as "the brains behind the gunmen, with a tremendous motive for murder."

What emotions he may have felt, were masked by perfect control of his features.

The defense centered its attack on the State's case almost wholly on Rose's testimony, which Mr. McIntyre denounced as unworthy of belief, because "Jack Rose testified to save himself from the electric chair."

He characterized the corroborating witness as "crooks and murderers;" the State's case, he summed up with a declaration that District Attorney Whitman, actuated by ambition "had fathered a prosecution framed up by crooks."

Mr. Moss warmly resented the implication that Mr. Whitman had any other motive than duty for seeking the conviction of Becker, and denounced "the villification of counsel for the defense," as revealing the "desperate straights to which he has come."

Mr. Moss accused Mr. McIntyre of misrepresenting the evidence to the jury, impelling Becker's attorney to jump to his feet and shake his fist in the face of his opponent as he uttered an indignant denial.

The lawyers spent four hours each in summing up the evidence.

"If Becker did not have a motive for the murder, why did he want to get an affidavit from Rose two days after Rosenthal was dead?" Mr. Moss asked. "The truth is Becker did not know how things would go. He saw the possibility that Rose might be a witness against him and he got an affidavit from Rose to silence him. He got Rose to swear his own life away, so he could not testify against him in this case."

Sam Schepps, Mr. Moss conceded, was an accessory after the fact, but had come forward to testify because Becker had "thrown his pal, Rose, to the dogs."

"Why," asked the prosecutor, "If Becker had no interest in the murder did he visit the police station where Rosenthal's body was lying? Becker was off duty. What reason did he have to go there?"

Mr. Moss declared that the defense had dwelt throughout the trial upon an alleged conspiracy to murder Rosenthal, "founded on the hatred of the underworld, as its explanation for the murder, but had not introduced a shred of proof that any such conspiracy had existed." Mr. McIntyre had examined Jack Rose, "Bridgie" Webber and Harry Vallon as to conversations with various persons concerning this alleged plot, but had failed to produce these persons as witnesses, Mr. Moss declared.

Answering Mr. McIntyre's declaration that the four gunmen, yet to be tried, might go free, even if Becker were convicted, Mr. Moss said:

"Have no fear that you will ever meet these four men on Broadway. We have not disclosed our entire case against them yet, and you needn't be afraid of meeting, Rose, Webber and Vallon there, either, after this trial is over. 'Their friends,' the gunmen of the underworld, will take care of that."

For the character of his witnesses,

SEVERE FIGHTING NEAR ADRIANOPLE

Allies Continue Their Success and Servians Capture Novipazar

TURKS ARE LESS CONFIDENT

Constantinople Admits Heavy Struggle in Progress—Victors Pay Dearly and Suffer Large Losses—Battle at Servia.

London, Oct. 23.—The news from the seat of war tonight tells of the continued success of the allies. The Servians have captured Novipazar, and are virtual masters of Kumanova. The victories, however, have been purchased at heavy sacrifices.

The situation in Thrace is becoming clearer. A great battle is being fought over a semi-circular front before Adrianople, upon which town the Bulgarians gradually are closing in. The Greeks have occupied Vistika and Tirnovo, and are continuing their advance southward.

In the west the Bulgarians, according to official Sofia accounts, have reached the Arda river, close to Adrianople, which is being vigorously bombarded. Already the two outer forts have fallen. Some positions to the north of Adrianople are also said to have been taken after fighting of the severest character.

Of the army in the center, operating in the direction of Kirk Kilisch, there was no news today, and evidently that fortress still is holding out.

It is significant that tonight's Constantinople dispatches, which say a decisive result is expected tomorrow, have a less confident tone than previous dispatches from that capital.

They admit a heavy struggle is in progress, in which both sides are showing the utmost bravery.

Information concerning the Montenegrin progress is meagre, but the Turkish authorities claim that Scutari has been reinforced and is safe. A Saloniki dispatch asserts that the Malissori tribes are offended because the Montenegrin commanders are proclaiming the sovereignty of King Nicholas in the captured Albanian towns. They demand that King Nicholas give a guarantee that he will evacuate Albanian territory and secure autonomy for Albania. So far, they have received no satisfactory reply and it is reported are refusing to fight further for the Montenegrins, whose advance has been thereby checked.

The next news of the Greek campaign should be an important battle around the town of Servia, to which place the Turks have retreated from Elassona, and have been reinforced from the north.

Both Sides Display Bravery.

Constantinople, Oct. 23. — Heavy fighting continued all day long along the line from Adrianople to Kirk Kilisch, but a result is not expected until tomorrow evening. Both sides are displaying the utmost bravery and determination.

The press correspondents left here today by special train, and are proceeding to the front. The foreign mi-

OUTLINES

Evidence was offered before the Clapp committee yesterday that Senator Albert J. Beveridge returned contributions amounting to $57,000 sent him in the campaign of 1904.

Counsel for both sides completed their summing up in the Becker case yesterday. Justice Goff will charge the jury this afternoon and the fate of the police lieutenant will shortly be with the jury.

Gen. Felix Diaz was captured yesterday, together with his staff; his forces were disarmed and Vera Cruz retaken by the Federals with scarcely no show of resistance.

News from the seat of the Balkan war tells of the continued success of the allies. The important Turkish town of Novipazar was captured by the Servians yesterday and severe fighting continued in the territory adjacent to Adrianople.

Col. Roosevelt's physicians declared yesterday their patient was steadily improving. The colonel got back into politics and held a conference with Geo. W. Perkins.

The Greeks captured Servia yesterday afternoon and cut off the retreat of the Turks.

Evidence was offered yesterday at the beginning of the government's suit against the Harvester Trust that several directors elected at the organization held their offices for only 24 hours.

Leaders of the Diaz revolt in Mexico will be put to death and one out of every ten of the soldiers will be executed.

GOVERNMENT ADMITS ERROR

Solicitor General Acknowledges Defect in Indictments of Patten, Scales, Hayne and Brown for Running Corner.

Washington, Oct. 23.—Admission of defects in the indictments of James Patten, Eugene Scales, Frank B. Hayne and William P. Brown, on charges of conspiracy to run a $10,000,000 corner on cotton in 1910 on the New York Cotton Exchange, in violation of the Sherman anti-trust law, were made in the Supreme Court of the United States today by Solicitor General Bullitt for the government. The occasion was the second argument over the indictment, the court not being willing to decide last Spring the correctness of the decision of the New York Federal Court in quashing several vital counts in the indictment.

The new Solicitor General had barely stated to the court that the question in the case was the decision of the lower court that the Sherman anti-trust law did not prohibit the "running of a corner", before Chief Justice White suggested that he would be pleased to have the government at some time define just what it meant by "corner." Mr. Bullitt responded it was a combination among dealers in a commodity or outside capitalists, for the purpose of buying up the greater portion of the commodity and holding it back from sale until the demand so far out-ran the limited supply as to advance the price abnormally.

"Now I want you to show how the indictment fits that definition, added the Chief Justice.

That led the Solicitor General to announce that he abandoned the third count of the indictment, because the lower court found there was no charge in it that the defendants were to hold back the cotton from sale.

"Getting right down to brass tacks," declared Mr. Bullitt, "I frankly admit that the other count, the seventh, has one defect, as there is no express statement in it that the combination was created to withhold from the market the cotton bought."

The Solicitor General said that in dealing with this defect the government advanced two arguments. One was that the lower court construed the count to charge the running of a corner and the Supreme Court could do nothing now but accept that interpretation, notwithstanding it might have the duty to examine the interpretation if there was a conviction and an appeal. The second argument, Mr. Bullitt said, was that the government had used the word "corner" in the count and everybody in the world knew that a corner included a withholding from sale. Justice Vandeventer suggested that the man who drafted the indictment did not have that in mind, perhaps, for immediately after the word "corner" he had defined the term without including a charge of withholding from sale.

Finally Mr. Bullitt admitted that if neither one of these arguments was accepted the government had no case.

Former Senator John C. Spooner will be heard tomorrow in defense of the accused.

COLONEL STEADILY IMPROVES

Roosevelt Takes a Dip Into Politics, and Talks With Perkins and Others at Sagamore Hill—He Plans Two Speeches.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Oct. 23.—The barrier between Sagamore Hill and the rest of the world was up today, and nothing was to be seen of Colonel Roosevelt. A few visitors, however, succeeded in getting past and through them the news filtered out that the colonel was steadily improving. At 9 o'clock tonight, after his physicians had examined his wound, they gave out this bulletin:

"Colonel Roosevelt has been resting in bed since his return home, and is distinctly better. The wound shows that the healing processes are going on.

"Dr. JOS. A. BLAKE,

Colonel Roosevelt took a dip into politics once more today. One of his visitors was George W. Perkins, of New York, who with Senator Dixon, of Montana, has charge of the colonel's campaign. Mr. Roosevelt had been impatient to see Mr. Perkins, and to get in touch with the political situation again, after being out of the fight for more than a week.

Dr. Lyman Abbott, of New York, and his sons, Lawrence and Ernest Abbott, who are associated with Colonel Roosevelt in its editorial work, also spent a short time at Sagamore Hill.

The colonel was permitted to sit up a while, and was moved about the house a bit, but Mrs. Roosevelt kept a close watch on him to prevent him from over-exerting himself. He ate three big meals and it was said he was in fine shape and in the best of condition, having more strength than since he was shot. By tomorrow he expects to be able to do some work.

Dr. Scurry Terrell, Colonel Roosevelt's physician during the campaign,

HAVE THE SPIRIT HERE, TOO

When Congress chose California as the site for the Panama-Pacific Exposition, the people of the Golden Gate State said they thought they could raise $17,000,000; but that seemed a lot of money to volunteer, and some people were afraid that they could never raise it. But already that sum has been eclipsed by two and one-half million dollars. That is the way they do things out there. The exposition will far exceed the $50,000,000 mark.

FOUR-FIFTHS WAY TO WILSON'S GOAL

Teams Reported Last Night Several Large Contributions from Citizens

ONE A THIRD CONTRIBUTOR

Now Time for Loyal Wilmingtonians To Make Good—Good Work of Team of Mr. D. H. Howes —Others

"Now is the time for all good men to come to the aid of their party."

With practically four-fifths of the $10,000 Woodrow Wilson Campaign Fund in hand, counting the conditional subscriptions already listed, the team workers feel now encouraged to push forward to the mark of their high calling and it is safe to say that within a few days it will all be over but the shouting.

But team work is necessary. The one hundred men upon whose shoulders has been placed the responsibility for Wilmington's making good in this civic effort are expeceed to do their full duty for the remaining days of this week.

Yesterday considerable impetus was given to the movement when Mr. M. J. Corbett, president of the Chamber of Commerce and one of Wilmington's most public-spirited citizens, headed Mr. J. V. Grainger's list with $100 in cold cash and Mr. Grainger himself added $50 personally.

Mr. H. C. McQueen, president of the Murchison National Bank, was the first contributor from Wilmington before this movement was ever organized. A little while ago he felt impelled to make a second contribution and on yesterday he made a third subscription to the fund. That is the spirit that accomplishes things in a community.

Mr. D. H. Howes' team, which has been winning laurels each day, largely with the dollar subscriptions, yesterday dropped into the "de luxe" class and turned in nearly a hundred dollars. Mr. Oscar Pearsall, a loyal Democrat and a devoted Wilmingtonian, headed his list with a $50 contribution, and Mrs. W. L. Parsley had the honor of leading a large number of lady contributors during the day with a subscription of $10.

While these all look large, some of the most valued contributions have come from the men in the ranks. Mr. J. H. Bornemann, Sr., is deserving of special mention as a voluntary contributor. Tuesday he walked into The Star office, handed in a contribution of $1 and talked interestingly of his recollection of the venerable father of the Democratic candidate and of his desire now to help the son win. His contribution was to the committee of which Mr. L. W. Moore is chairman.

Wilmington and New Hanover are now making 'em all "sit up and take notice." Yesterday's Raleigh News and Observer printed a tabulated statement of all contributions from the State and New Hanover had the extreme pleasure of leading in black type. New Hanover's total at the time of completion was $5,632.25, while Rowan was second with $2,879.50. This was made possible by Baldy Boyden's contribution of $2,500. New Hanover was at that time nearly double the next highest contributor, therefore, and she will exceed a dozen other counties before this campaign is over. Mecklenburg was third with $1,122.00; Wake fourth with $1,087, and Durham fifth with $582.00. Davidson College Alumni contributed $142.50. Thus it will be seen that New Hanover is in a class all by itself and when the final tabulation is made she will be far ahead of any county in the United States. It is Wilmington's contribution to the success of a people's President who spent some of the best years of his life as a resident here. The total contributions from the State thus far, exclusive of any that may have been remitted direct, is $20,285.30.

FINE CONCERT LAST NIGHT.

Children From Oxford Orphanage Gave Enjoyable Entertainment.

The Singing Class from the Oxford Orphans' Asylum gave a most enjoyable concert in the Academy of Music last night. The children appeared here under the auspices of the local Masonic lodges. The class gives a concert here every year and while the attendance last night was not as large as usual the entertainment was up to the high standard established on former visits here and everybody enjoyed the evening's entertainment. A very attractive programme was rendered. The class is composed of the following children: Bessie Forbes, Bettie Pearl Griffin, Virginia Hight, Flora Hutchens, Bessie Jernigan, Mary Kennedy, Hila Morris, Yvette King, Emma White, Beatrice Wilson, Lester Cook, Maurice Carner, Fife Meador, Leonard Medlin. The children will give a concert tonight at Burgaw. Proceeds from all the concerts go toward the support of the orphanage at Oxford, which is a Masonic institution.

Basketball at the Brigade.

Yesterday afternoon, after the regular class exercises at the Boys' Brigade, Company C League played the fifth game of basketball for the championship of the company, resulting in a victory for the team of Register over Palmgren by a score of 14 to 9, and the team of Fergus won over Montgomery by a score of 18 to 10. Both games were fast and well played, showing marked improvement over the previous games. In the Mid-Week League two games were played last night when Cameron won over Walton by a score of 30 to 7, and Gerdes defeated Fowler to the tune of 15 to 1.

Monthly Meeting of Teachers.

The New Hanover County White Teachers' Association will meet in regular monthly session at the Court House Saturday morning. Dr. Chas. T. Nesbitt, city superintendent of health, has been invited to address the teachers on some subject to be selected by himself pertaining to health or hygiene. The teachers are looking forward with interest to the meeting.

BRESNAHAN WILL FIGHT.

Deposed St. Louis Manager Declares He Won't Quit.

St. Louis, Oct. 23.—"Fight? Am I going to fight? Well, I guess yes," Roger Bresnahan, deposed manager of the St. Louis National League club, declared today. "I am ready to fight for my rights and will go into any court they want me to. I never quit on the ball field and I won't quit now."

Rumors were in circulation today that President Robert L. Hedges, of the St. Louis Americans, was ready to pay Bresnahan the $10,000 a year his contract with the St. Louis National League team calls for, but not the 10 per cent. of the profits.

INCREASED YIELD SHOWN.

International Agricultural Institute Wires Figures to U. S.

Washington, Oct. 23.—Cablegrams to the Department of Agriculture from the International Institute of Agriculture at Rome give the total wheat production of 24 principal producing countries at 3,257,000,000 bushels, or 7.2 per cent. more than they produced last pear; barley 1,279,000,000 in 23 countries, 5.2 per cent. more than last year; oats 4,084,000,000 in 22 countries, 20.7 per cent. more than last year, and corn 3,620,000,000 in 12 countries 16.4 per cent. more than last year. All calculations include the United States.

INVESTIGATE ZARZA CASE.

Cuban Vice Consul at Washington Will Look Into Matter.

Washington, Oct. 23.—Investigation of the case of the Jos. J. Zarza, an attache of the Cuban consulate at Newport News, Va., who has been sent to jail for three months and fined $500 on the charge of having attacked Mrs. Charles Brown, wife of a draftsman at the Newport News shipyard, is to be made by C. A. Barranco, Cuban vice consul here who left tonight for Newport News. Mr. Barranco will act as the representative of the Cuban minister, who today had an interview with Acting Secretary of State Wilson. It is expected the Zarza matter was mentioned only casually in the course of the interview. It is said Zarza was only a clerk of the consulate, that he did not enjoy diplomatic immunity, which would have protected him from fine and imprisonment. On the report of Mr. Baranco will depend whether the Cuban minister will deal with the matter through diplomatic channels or let it take its ordinary course in the courts.

WANTS TO BUY PHILLIES

Jefferson Livingston Offers Fogel Almost a Million

Philadelphia, Oct. 23.—Jefferson Livingston, of Cincinnati, today held a conference here with Horace Fogel, president of the Philadelphia National League baseball club, when the purchase of the club was discussed, but no agreement was reached. Mr. Livingston says he made a cash offer not far below the million mark.

During the past week Fogel has received several offers, some of which, he says, were satisfactory from a cash point of view, but not entirely so in other respects.

who is staying in Oyster Bay to keep watch on the colonel, visited Sagamore Hill twice during the day.

"Colonel Roosevelt is getting along in fine shape," said the doctor. "He was more active today, and had more strength. The wound is still open, but so long as the discharge continues, it should remain open, to heal better from the inside."

In addition to the speech which Colonel Roosevelt is to make in New York next week, he probably will address his neighbors in this and surrounding towns at a rally in Oyster Bay on the night before election.

The prospects for his speedy recovery have brought up the question of additional speeches. If the colonel has his way, and his strength holds out, he probably will make a few more addresses. It is understood that this was one of the things he discussed with Mr. Perkins today.

Portland, Ore., Oct. 23.—Mrs. Lillian Stevens, of Portland, Me., was unanimously re-elected president of the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union today as were all other officers. Addresses on ways for combating the drink and social evils occupied today's sessions.

New York, Oct. 23.—Republic Iron and Steel Company today announced a quarterly dividend of one and three-quarters per cent on its preferred stock. Dividends were suspended by the company some time ago, owing to adverse trade conditions.

Superintendent of Orphans Home Charged With Assaulting Girls

Greenville, S. C., Oct. 23.—A continuance until tomorrow upon motion of counsel for Rev. Thurston U Vaughn, charged with assaulting three little girls while he was superintendent of the South Carolina Odd Fellows Home last May, was granted when the court of Special Sessions convened here today. Many witnesses were absent.

The attorneys for the defense also made a motion that the general public be excluded from the court room during the trial. The court declared his ruling would be made upon this motion tomorrow. The sheriff favors the exclusion of the public, fearing a demonstration against the prisoner.

BILLY PAPKE WON.

Put French Aspirant, Carpentier, Out in Seven Rounds.

Paris, Oct. 23.—Billy Papke, the middleweight fighter of Illinois, tonight defeated the French champion, Georges Carpentier. The Frenchman quit after the seventh round. The Frenchman's manager claimed the title of middleweight champion, because Papke was overweight.

Jacksonville, Fla., Oct. 23.—The National convention of the Society of the United States Military Telegraph Corps met in executive session here today and took up plans for securing Federal pensions. It was decided today to have a bill drawn which will be presented at the next session of Congress. The old officers of the organization were re-elected and Detroit, Mich., chosen as the 1913 meeting place.

The car that conquers every territory it enters is the car to tie to

K-r-i-t cars have already conquered in many sections. They have never yet failed in profit to the dealer, and satisfaction to the buyer.

Increased production now enables us to bring them to you.

Here, therefore, is the opportunity for dealer and buyer alike—a car of medium price that offers such value and service that it has made a clean sweep.

One of the explanations of K-r-i-t value is—that all the essential parts are made within the K-r-i-t organization; the money is put into the car itself and not in useless equipment.

Dealers who know the K-r-i-t, know that the best part of the K-r-i-t profit lies in its character—which makes it a successful car next year as well as this year because the K-r-i-t reputation rolls up the sales. Moreover they know that K-r-i-t service means that the K-r-i-t Motor Car Company stands back of every car—that a written guarantee for a year goes with each car.

The dealer knows also that when he is offering the K-r-i-t he is offering his client a full $900 worth in power, speed, ease in riding, room, comfort, and reliability—more in fact, for that sum than he could ever offer before.

Therefore, the Dealer who ties up with the K-r-i-t will be scoring, like others before him, the biggest business stroke of his career. He will be tying to a car that will sweep through his territory just as it has triumphed elsewhere.

If you understand the technical side of an automobile, bear in mind that the K-r-i-t motor, clutch and transmission are a unit.

That means conservation of power, getting as near as possible 100-per cent efficiency. And speaking of power, don't forget that while the K-r-i-t is medium in price, it is full powered, staunch and husky, equal to any work.

K-r-i-t models are finished in black and nickel and with 56 or 60-inch tread as desired. Their equipment is complete.

An electric lighting system including five lamps, and 100-hour storage battery is added to each car for $10 extra.

Other Models—"KR" Roadster $900; "KD" Delivery $900; Completely Equipped F. O. B. Detroit.

A MYSTERIOUS SHOOTING

Raleigh Has New Sensation—Woodrow Wilson Day in State—High School Teachers—Other Capital Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 23.—The Raleigh police are investigating a mysterious shooting that occurred last night in the woods just east of the city. Irene Francis, 17-year-old white girl, and Johnnie Bridgers, a negro woman, were shot, the white girl in the thigh and the negro in the breast. The police have found that Ed Cotton, a negro hackman, drove a white man that he claims was a stranger, out to that locality and left him.

At State Democratic headquarters preparations are being made under the direction of State Chairman Chas. A. Webb for the observance of Woodrow Wilson Day throughout this State on November 2nd. The demonstrations in the small towns will be at 4 o'clock in the afternoon and in the larger towns and cities at night. The day is to be observed throughout the country.

An amendment was filed today for the charter of the Farmers' Union Bank & Trust Co., of Walnut Cove, increasing the capital from $12,000 to $25,000. J. Spot Taylor is president of the institution.

Announcement is made at the State Department of Education that 45 of the 56 applicants for certificates as public high school teachers who undertook the recent examinations were successful and that one applicant for the five year public school teachers' certificate was successful in the examinations. The members of the State Board of Examiners have just completed the work of grading the examination papers. Members of the board are Dr. J. Y. Joyner, Prof. W. A. Graham, Prof. H. F. Austin, Prof. N. W Walker, Prof. Z. W. Judd and Mr. E. E. Sams.

The Enfield Building & Loan Association, just organized, has field its charter with the State Department of Insurance ready to begin business, the Department of Insurance having the oversight of building and loan business in this State as well as of insurance.

Five times a husband and three times wife are the records of Mrs. Mary F. Warren, of Durham, and Mr. Lovett Warren, of Dunn, who were united in marriage in the office of the register of deeds here last evening by Deputy and Justice Arch J. Woods, the bride is 45 and the bridegroom 57 years old.

Miss Madeline Lindsay, 19-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. S. Lindsay, and student of Oxford Seminary, gave her parents and friends a distinct surprise today in the announcement of her marriage Monday night in Henderson to Mr. Sidney M. Knott, of this city. She was here to spend fair week with her parents and left Monday to resume her studies at Oxford. Instead she stopped in Henderson and was joined there by Mr. Knott and the marriage followed. They returned to Raleigh and broke the news to their parents and friends. The bridegroom is a clerk in the drug store of J. C. Brantley.

A rainfall of considerably more than an inch within a couple of hours last night gave the city a thorough drenching and in many places clogged gutters causing considerable damage. At the corner of Blount and Hargett streets the foundations of the new business building being erected by B. F. Montague were damaged to the extent of probably $1,500. The foundation walls were up to the sidewalk level and water from the street poured in and completely washed out large sections of the walls so that practically the whole foundation will have to be taken out and re-laid.

Mrs. Julia Meachum, widow of the late Rev. D. P. Meachum, who was accidentally killed by a Seaboard train here, died at her home on Elm street this morning aged 72 years. She was a daughter of J. J. Christopher, for many years clerk of the city of Raleigh.

COME TO HARMONY.

Rev. E. B. Carr Planning for Great Meeting There Sunday.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Atkinson, N. C., Oct. 23.—As it was the custom of the old time people to go up to Jerusalem to worship, so it is the custom of our Harmony congregation to go up to Kerr, N. C., to worship. It is our intention to preach two sermons at Kerr, N. C., Harmony church, next Saturday, and we look for a good large congregation and a good feast, not only of something good to eat, but we look for a gospel feast of good things; for we have asked Rev. J. S. Crowley, of Wilmington, to be with us, and we good Kerr brethren know what that means. Brother Crowley has not said that he would be with us as yet, but we have given him an invitation, and we believe that the nearer Saturday comes, the more anxious he will be to come to Kerr.

Kerr is a good place to meet with your old friends and acquaintances; it is a place where we all feel at home in the Lord's house. I leave with you the message of Moses to Hobab, "Come and go with us, and we will do thee good." I would not be surprised if we did not have people at Kerr next Saturday and Sunday from Tomahawk, Newkirk's Bridge, Harrel's Store, and, perhaps, we will see some at Kerr from Ivanhoe and Anders' Bridge. Come, brethren, we love to see you at Kerr, we want to shake your hand, a good hearty handshake does us all good.

Yours very sincerely,
E. B. CARR.

EASTERN CAROLINA FAIR

Everything In Readiness for Great Exposition Next Week

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Newbern, N. C., Oct. 23.—Everything has been completed for the great Eastern Carolina Fair which will take place October 29th, 30th, 31st and November 1st, 1912.

Tuesday, October 29th will be "military Day." Every naval reserve and military company in eastern North Carolina have been invited to participate in the military exercises that will take place this day. Ten companies have already signified that they will be here.

The parade will start down town and the following will be the marching order: Policemen, band, marshals, officers of the association, militia and Naval Reserves, fire department, flats, automobiles and carriages. There will be four bands in the parade. On arrival at the fair ground the fair will be formally opened with a speech by Governor Francis D. Winston. Immediately after the speech there will take place a military contest in front of the grandstand. The company making the best showing will be awarded a magnificent silk flag. Immediately after the silk flag is awarded, there will take place a sham battle in the center of the race track.

Wednesday, October 30th will be "Educational Day." Tickets, allowing free admission for this day have been issued to each school child in eastern North Carolina. If there is a teacher who has not received these tickets, please notify J. Leon Williams, secretary of the fair, Newbern, N. C., at once, and tickets will be mailed to them. There will be all kinds of sports for the children in front of the grandstand, such as 100-yard dash, potato race, sack race, shoe and barrel race and others. All the schools in Newbern and vicinity have agreed to close on this day and every principal of a school in eastern North Carolina is urged to close his school on this day and allow the little ones to have a real treat by visiting Newbern on the greatest day of its kind in eastern North Carolina.

Thursday, October 30th, will be the "big day." All the factories in Newbern and surrounding country will close for this day. All retail stores in Newbern are requested to do their shopping on the morning of this day. There will be an automobile parade in the morning. All automobiles will be handsomely decorated. At 12 o'clock at the fair ground will take place the horse show. At 2:30 will take place a football game between Newbern and the second team of A. & M. College.

Friday, Nov. 1st, will be "Farmers' Day." This is the day the farmers will race their horses.

Each day at the fair ground there will be the finest list of attractions ever offered the public in eastern North Carolina. Frank Champion, the noted aviator, will fly daily in his monoplane. J. E. Hardy, king of high wire artists, the man who walked across Niagara Falls on a tight wire, will perform twice daily. White and Lamar, the funny comedians, will perform on the platform in front of the grandstand. The Cycling Herberts will do the same.

Roman chariot races, with four horses at each chariot daily. There will be Roman standing races daily. There will be cowboy and cowgirl races furnished by the Miller Wild West Show. There will be horse races and motorcycle races and three other free attractions. Music on all occasions will be furnished by Passeris Italian band of twenty pieces from Philadelphia.

Automobiles, carriages and wagons will be allowed to enter the fair ground but must be placed at a spot reserved by the manager for this purpose. All vehicles refusing to be parked as above will be ejected from the fair ground.

The Great Eastern Carolina Fair is no fake. We positively will have everything as advertised above, so you can't afford to miss this opportunity to see the greatest fair ever pulled off in eastern North Carolina.

"LITTLE" WASHINGTON.

Northern Methodist College—Federal Building—Football.

Washington, N. C., Oct. 23.—Dr. Thomas Nicholson, secretary of the General Board of Education of the Northern Methodist church, of New York, arrived in the city last night for the purpose of making the final arrangements for the erection of the proposed college that this church has recently decided to locate in this city, at Washington Park. Bishop Theodore Henderson, of the Methodist Church, was down here several weeks ago looking over the situation and on his return made a favorable report to the board for the location of this college in Washington and Dr. Nicholson comes to make the final arrangements, and it is understood that the actual work of construction on the proposed college will begin about the 1st of January, 1913.

Work on Washington's handsome new public building is progressing rapidly. The walls and roof are nearly completed and work on the interior will soon be started. The building is being erected by Messrs. John G. Unkerfer & Co., architects and contractors, of Minerva, Ohio, and their local representative, Mr. F. R. Pratt, who is a member of the firm, is a hustler and he is pushing the work as fast as practical.

Rev. H. P. Dalton, of the Baptist church, expects on Sunday to start a series of revival meetings. He will be assisted in this work by Rev. C. M. Rock, pastor of the Baptist church in Greenville, N. C.

A great game of football will be played in this city on next Friday afternoon when the local High School will meet the team from the High School in Wilmington on the gridiron. A hard fought game is expected to be the outcome and both sides are confident of victory.

GODWIN IN COLUMBUS

Congressional Nominee Completes Canvass of County—Simmons

(Special Star Telegram.)

Whiteville, N. C., Oct. 23.—Hon H. L. Godwin, Democratic nominee for Congress, completed his appointments in Columbus today at Newberlin. Congressman Godwin is very strong with our people and his speeches for the Democratic party were very impressive as vote-getters. He was heard by good crowds at all of his engagements. He was accompanied on his canvass by the county candidates and Walter Powell, Esq., who espoused the cause of Senator Simmons.

CHARLES JOHNSON TESTIFIES.

Champion's Brother Gives Grand Jury Important Evidence.

Chicago, Oct. 23.—Charles Johnson, brother of Jack Johnson, negro pugilist, today told the Federal grand jury all he knew regarding the relations of his brother and the white girl, Lucile Cameron, who recently was taken from the negro champion by her mother. Charles Johnson recently was arrested at the instigation of the champion on a charge of theft.

Johnson is said to have given the inquisitors important information. As he entered the jury room the negro was heard to declare:

"It's the hand of God. The Lord has taken this fellow in hand and is directing justice at him."

The Cameron girl and her mother were not recalled before the grand jury today as had been expected. It is said, however, that Lucile will be one of the main witnesses on Monday, when the investigation is resumed.

Mrs. Cameron-Falconet, mother of the Cameron girl, today said there had been a complete reconciliation between her daughter and herself, and that the latter now was willing to disclose her story.

A development of the case was a suit filed against Johnson by Willard Davis, a mulatto, for $5,000 for the alleged alienation of his wife's affections. His wife is said to have been a singer in the champion's cafe and it is reported she was the woman who, Federal authorities declared, shot Johnson in the foot several days ago while in a jealous rage.

DESIRES POSTPONEMENT.

Government Not Ready for Wood Pulp and Paper Case.

Washington, Oct. 23.—The government will ask for an indefinite postponement of the wood pulp and paper case set for argument tomorrow in the Customs Court. Officials want more time to prepare the government's side of the international issue, which involves the right of European countries by virtue of the "most favored nation" clause of their commercial treaties with the United States, to send wood pulp and paper into this country free of duty. That privilege is granted Canada under the only operative clause of the Canadian reciprocity agreement.

All Sores Are Not Cancerous

While all Old Sores are not cancerous in their nature, every slow healing ulcer shows a degenerated condition of the blood. Virulent impurities in the circulation produce angry, discharging ulcers, while milder and more inert germs are usually manifested in the form of indolent sores or dry, scabby places. Efforts to heal an old sore with external applications always result in failure because such treatment does not reach the blood, and the ulcer will continue to eat deeper into the surrounding flesh as long as a polluted circulation discharges its impurities into it. S.S.S. heals old sores of every nature by purifying the blood. It goes to the fountain-head of the trouble and drives out the germ-producing poisons and morbid impuritics which prevent the place from healing. Then a stream of rich, nourishing blood, which S. S. S. creates, causes a perfect and natural knitting together of all flesh fibres, making a thorough and permanent cure. The sore does not "come back" when S. S. S. has made a cure, because its source has been destroyed. Book on sores and ulcers and medical advice free.

THE MORNING STAR

WILMINGTON STAR COMPANY, INC., Wilmington, N. C.

Entered as second-class matter at the postoffice at Wilmington, N. C., under Act of Congress, March 2nd, 1874.

FULL ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT.

PUBLISHERS' ANNOUNCEMENT.

THE MORNING STAR, the oldest daily newspaper in North Carolina, is published daily except Monday, at $6 per year, $3 for six months, $1.50 for three months, 50 cents for one month, served by carrier in the city, or by mail.

THE SUNDAY STAR, by mail, one year, $1; six months, 50 cents; three months, 25 cents.

ADVERTISING RATES may be had on application, and advertisers may feel assured that through the columns of this paper they may reach all Wilmington, Eastern Carolina and contiguous territory in South Carolina.

Obituary sketches, cards of thanks, communications espousing the cause of a private enterprise or a political candidate, and like matter, will be charged at the rate of 10 cents per line, or if paid cash in advance, a half rate will be allowed. Announcements of fairs, festivals, balls, hops, picnics, society meetings, political meetings, etc., will be charged under same conditions, except so much thereof as may be of news value to readers of the paper.

Advertisements discontinued before expiration of contracts are charged transient rates for time actually published. Payment for transient advertisements must be cash in advance. Contract advertisers will not be allowed to exceed their space at same rates, or advertise anything foreign to their regular business, without extra charge. Advertisements to occupy special place will be charged for according to position desired.

TELEPHONES: Business Office, No. 51; Editorial and Local rooms, No. 61. Call either, if the other doesn't answer.

COMMUNICATIONS, unless they contain important news, or discuss briefly and properly subjects of real interest, are not wanted; and if acceptable in every other way, they will invariably be rejected unless the real name of the author accompanies the same, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith.

Thursday, October 24, 1912.

The united Democracy of North Carolina is divided over three candidates for the United States Senate.

The Dominion of Dollars must go. That means government by the Republican party and its trust partnership.

Most of the progressives in all political parties are office-seekers who make progress in the discovery of a few real juicy office-getting "isms."

The Republican nominee for Governor of New York is Job Hedges. We don't fancy that New York will have any Governor whose name reminds us of "the byways and hedges."

Speaking about the desirability of a redistribution of wealth, the campaign of 1904 seems to have been a cause which invited great liberality from those who had barrels that could be readily tapped.

The Portland Oregonian says: "There are two sorts of wives—one who is a helpmeet and the other a nagger and stumbling block." Men generally get either one or the other, and it often happens that either is too good for several sorts of husbands.

George W. Perkins was quite perky when he was before the investigation committee at Washington. People who can't stand an investigation and get mad over it ought not to do anything that requires a more or less searching and worrisome investigation.

The Anti-Noise Congress, which a year ago offered a prize of $5,000 for a method for suppressing noise, no doubt would reject a claim from John Schrank for the money. At the same time Schrank brought about a complete cessation of the noise of the campaign.

People who have got "their's" under Republicanism seem to be convinced that Republicanism got it for them. That is the reason they want to "let well enough alone," but well enough for the few does not mean well enough for the masses who are the victims of the high cost of living.

Not Goodwin is attracting a little more notoriety because a man is suing him for damages for alienating his wife's affections. Nat already has had four wives during his picturesque matrimonial career, and since it seems that he cannot hold on to one of his own he is determined to get some other fellow's.

One reason why the protective tariff should go is that it has so enriched a few men that they can go out and buy them a political party and run their own choice for President every four years. The beneficiaries of privilege are the fellows who are so rich that they can afford to make a campaign donation that is big enough to build a cotton mill.

We don't quite understand why it is that most of the so-called progressives we have met are intolerant and unreasonable. Real progressives ought to be as smiling as a basket of chips. A Progressive ought to be benevolent, charitable and philanthropic. We have an idea that all narrow-minded, biggoted, vicious, whinneying individuals are going to be put out of the Progressive camp.

Republicans say that reduction of the tariff will not reduce the high cost of living. Well, we are willing to take the chances, anyhow, but if reducing the tariff will not reduce prices, why are the protectionists opposing reduction? We naturally infer that they fear that a reduced tariff means a reduction of their prices. Protectionists would not oppose tariff reform if they did not believe that it will lessen their grasp and their graft.

COTTON HARVESTING BY MACHINERY.

The Price-Campbell cotton picking machine, which has been on exhibition and doing demonstration operations at Laurinburg and Maxton, is this week doing work at Elm City, N. C. This machine is a marvelous piece of mechanism, and its actual test in the cotton fields has convinced cotton growers that its commercial utility is an assured fact.

The machine as it stands now, even without the vital improvements already contemplated, has proven itself to be an economical harvester of cotton. However, its operation in the cotton fields of eastern North Carolina have resulted in tests which have opened the way for effective improvements which are to be made for the future perfecting of the power picker that promises a solution of the South's cotton harvesting problem.

The Price-Campbell picking machine will be commercially demonstrated at Elm City till November 1st, and great interest is manifested in it by producers of the fiecy staple. That interest will be all the greater because of the successful demonstration at Laurinburg and Maxton. The mechanical cotton harvester evidently has come to stay, for the infant model so completely vindicates the principle of the device that its complete perfection is now but a matter of future construction on an increasing ratio, just as type-setting machines are improved with every new one that comes from the factory.

The cotton harvesting problem in the South has become so acute as to threaten even a gradual increase of production. The scarcity of labor has made it impossible to pick the crop which is annually produced. Hundreds of thousands of bales produced last year were never picked and fields white with the crop were turned under in the Winter and Spring to make way for other crops.

It seems strange that the labor which in 1910-1911 produced an actual crop of 17,000,000 to 18,000,000 bales was only able to gather 16,138,426 bales which is the statistical crop for that season and which is the record crop in the history of cotton production in America. Nevertheless, it has been demonstrated in recent years that the South is producing more cotton than it can pick by hand, so it is not necessary to search for the reasons why that is true. It might be stated, however, that throughout the entire Belt the complaint of lack of handpickers is universal. For one thing, this shortage of cotton pickers is caused by the circumstance that thousands of the hands which cultivate the crop are not available in the Fall for picking. They seek other employment at a time when other industries create a demand that takes them from the cotton field. The weather during the cotton picking season also militates against the putting in of the same time by labor as it is accustomed to do during the cultivating period when the weather is finest.

These things have accentuated the cotton picking problem, and besides that, the improved method of farming has greatly added to the production per acre. More yield per acre is a pronounced factor, and it is notable that in North Carolina the government statistics show that the North Carolina acreage yield is greater than that of all the other cotton growing States. In Columbus county last year the crop averaged more than a bale per acre for every acre planted.

North Carolina in 1910-11, ran its production up to mare than 1,000,000 bales, while in this State there are millions of acres of adaptible cotton lands which have never been brought under cultivation. A grower in a county adjacent to Wilmington declared a few days ago that all the crop in his county could not be gathered this season, and he stated that as a matter of fact present farming methods produce more cotton than can be picked by the hands which grow the crop.

These conditions make the cotton picking machine imperative if the South is to continue to increase its production to meet the constantly increasing demand of the world's factories. The South, therefore, is laying great store by the Price-Campbell picker, which is coming into practical use none too soon to meet a situation that grows more perplexing every season.

WILSON'S SILENCER

A day or so after Colonel Roosevelt had been shot he delivered a message to the American people through ex-Senator Albert Beveridge, of Indiana. Mr. Beveridge delivered the message in a speech made in Cincinnati. The "message" was not so much of a message as it was an attempt to put the hooks in Governor Woodrow Wilson. However, the "message" turned out to be a boomorang.

Through Mr. Beveridge Colonel Roosevelt prodded Wilson about his failure to "bust" trusts in the trust-producing and trust-ridden State of New Jersey. Governor Wilson was asked to explain how it was that he had been Governor for "about two years" and yet had failed to take any decisive steps toards driving guilty corporations from their chosen shelter under the laws of New Jersey? The purpose of the wounded Bull Moose, of course, was to create the impression that Wilson had not suited his action to his words in denouncing trusts.

Governor Wilson answered next day, and the answer was a silencer. The fact is the trusts were created under a Republican State administration and they took refuge under succeeding Republican administrations. Republican Legislatures passed the laws granting powers and privileges to the trusts and never passed any to suppress or control them. Another fact is, Governor Wilson had the misfortune of having a Republican Legislature on his hands and he could do nothing without legislation. That he could not get from a hostile Legislature, although he made strenuous recommendations and secured many reforms.

Governor Wilson has shown that a Republican Legislature was responsible, and that even if it were powerless, the Governor was equally so to bring actions under the Federal statute on charges for violation of State laws. The Governor has shown that it was the duty of the Federal government to take action under Federal laws, since he could not employ a Federal act to punish trusts against whom the Republican Legislature had provided no laws.

Governor Wilson has shown from the record that repeated urgings on his part had no effect on a Republican Legislature without whose action the Governor's hands were tied. Everybody knows that the Legislature would have to pass laws before trusts could be proceeded against, and then those laws would not touch a corporation engaged in inter-State commerce, which comes under Federal supervision. After asking his foolish question of Governor Wilson, Senator Beveridge put his own foot in it. In his speech he forgot himself and declared that "the power of repeal, restrict or suspend corporate charters, or to dissolve corporations, resides in Legislatures." Then he spoke truly.

Governor Wilson left Roosevelt and Beveridge in an attitude of inconsistency, and all that is needed to prove it on Roosevelt is to note his consistency in expecting Wilson to secure legislation from a hostile Legislature, while Roosevelt when Governor of New York, with a Republican Legislature to do his bidding, got no such laws passed and never even attempted to do as much. Roosevelt busted no trusts when Governor of New York, even though backed by a Republican Legislature, and how could he expect Governor Wilson to do it without a Republican Legislature which would take no urging from him?

The colonel's message falls flat with the exposure of his own inconsistency as well as lack of knowledge of the law in supposing that the Governor of a State can prosecute trusts for violating Federal statutes. Only the Government can do that, and it has never succeed at it so's you would notice it.

Publicity for campaign subscriptions did not seem to be very effective in 1904. In that campaign, the trusts and a few individuals subscribed $2,250,000 to Roosevelt's campaign fund, and Mr. Thomas F. Ryan furnished $450,000 to Judge Parker's campaign and to pay up a deficit at the end of the campaign. Yet, after eight years, we are just finding out the facts through a Congressional investigation. An investigation seems to have the advantage of publicity—on paper.

CURRENT COMMENT.

These be prosperous times and they will grow better as the administration of President Wilson develops. Once the people made up their minds that Wilson was the right man to be President of the United States, every vestige of the Roosevelt-Taft panic of 1907 disappeared.—Raleigh Times.

Taft's idea is that the farmers with bumper crops should sacrifice their products so as to lower the high cost of living. He can't be made to come across and admit that it is his high tariff friends who are adding to the cost of living. But the people know this, and they will attend to the protective tariff special interest board when the polls are open. — Raleigh News and Observer.

The insistence of Roosevelt speakers in Spartanburg that they have always been "Democrats" and are still "Democrats" is rather gratifying, showing, as it does, that a South Carolinian feels inclined to explain and emphasize any sort of departure from the historic party of white civilization and progress in the South. It is a strong indication that only the exceptional man will succeed in persuading himself to sunder the ties that bind him to the party of his fathers; the party that, in spite of its occasional mistakes in State and local affairs, has been the best and truest friend of his people and alone among the parties may be fully depended upon at all times and in all circumstances to reflect the views of the people of the white South as to questions most vitally touching their social and political safety.—Columbia State.

The remarkable extract which was printed on this page yesterday, in which the Hebrew Standard paid tribute to "William Sulzer the Man," is matched by the equally significant letter of Jacob H. Schiff announcing his support of the Democratic candidate. Mr. Schiff makes it clear that he measures Mr. Sulzer by the test of deeds, not race or religion. The services Mr. Sulzer rendered to American citizenship in pressing for the rights accorded by American passports in Russia win naturally the gratitude of Jewish citizens, as they should win the appreciation of all who would see our citizenship respected abroad. "Practical politicians are rather given to overestimating the effect of race names in building a winning ticket. The people of the United States are of every race, but the name "American" is broad enough for all.—New York World.

President Taft has sent out letters to the Governors of the States in which he urges radical legislation in favor of the American farmer and consumer as a means of solving the question of the high cost of living. The President proposes to reduce the cost of foodstuffs on the American dinner table by reducing the cost to the farmer of producing his crops. He suggests the establishing in the interest of the farmer a financial machine which would give him access to all the money centers of the world and afford him credit at greatly reduced rates and upon more advantageous terms than he now receives. The complete development of our agricultural resources, President Taft thinks, would go a long way in solving the problem of the high cost of living. The people of North Carolina believe that with the election of Governor Woodrow Wilson and a Democratic Congress, the proper legislation will be enacted and the proper steps taken for the proper protection of the farmer and the consumer.—Charlotte Chronicle.

The blow has fell! Colliers Weekly, the paper that has been so enthusiastically quoted by Manager McNinch as a paper that is "supporting Wilson," has turned coat again. It has dropped Wilson, or will do so, and will support Roosevelt. The shift is accounted for in this brief paragraph: "Norman Hapgood has resigned as editor of Colliers Weekly. He has been with the paper nine years. His resignation was due to a difference with Robert J. Collier, who succeeds him as editor-in-chief. Mr. Collier says the difference grew out of politics, but Mr. Hapgood asserts it was due to an effort to influence the editorial page in behalf of the advertising department. With the change in editors will come a change in the paper's policy. It has been leaning toward Wilson since the Baltimore convention, but will hereafter support Roosevelt." Colliers is the paper that slandered the white women of North Carolina, and that in recent weeks has been industriously engaged in throwing mud at Senator Simmons. Verbum sap!—Charlotte Observer.

The Best Cough Syrup is Easily Made at Home

Costs Little and Acts Quickly. Money Refunded If It Fails.

This recipe makes a pint of cough syrup, and saves you about $2.00 as compared with ordinary cough remedies. It stops obstinate coughs—even whooping cough—in a hurry, and is splendid for sore lungs, asthma, croup, hoarseness and other throat troubles.

Mix one pint of granulated sugar with ½ pint of warm water, and stir for 2 minutes. Put 2½ ounces of Pinex (fifty cents' worth) in a pint bottle, and add the Sugar Syrup. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours. Tastes good.

This takes right hold of a cough and gives almost instant relief. It stimulates the appetite, and is slightly laxative—both excellent features.

Pinex, as perhaps you know, is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, rich in guaiacol and the other natural healing pine elements.

No other preparation will do the work of Pinex in this recipe, although strained honey can be used instead of the sugar syrup, if desired.

Thousands of housewives in the United States and Canada now use this Pinex and Sugar Syrup recipe. This plan has often been imitated, but the old successful formula has never been equaled. Its low cost and quick results have made it immensely popular.

A guaranty of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this recipe. Your druggist has Pinex, or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

THAT TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS

Three weeks ago, some loyal men,
Called a meeting and decided then,
That they were going to raise a sum,
To help the "WILSON" campaign fund.
Of course they thought, from the very start,
That all would gladly do their part.
And so it was they laid this plan;
It was to see that every man,
Was given a chance to do his best,
And then let "WILSON" do the rest.
They went to work then with a vim,
Each thinking it was up to him.
Ere long they cut the sum to half,
And now are on the downward path.
They'll raise Ten Thousand as sure as fate,
If you don't believe it, you just wait.
So Mr. Knocker put up your hammer,
And help to raise the "WILSON BANNER."

HYOMEI (pronounce it High-o-me) is guaranteed to end the misery of catarrh or money back.

Breathe it, destroy the catarrh germs, and soon hawking and snuffling will cease.

Breathe it and crusts will no longer form in the nose; mucus will not lodge in the throat; all inflammation will leave the membrane of the nose and throat and your head will feel clear and fine.

Breathe it for coughs, colds and sore throat; its soothing, healing, antiseptic action is better than all the stomach dosing remedies in creation.

Complete outfit which includes inhaler and bottle of HYOMEI, $1.00. Extra bottles of HYOMEI 50 cents at R. R. Bellamy and druggists everywhere.

To break up cold in head or chest over night or to more quickly conquer stubborn catarrh, pour a scant teaspoonful of HYOMEI into a bowl of boiling water, cover head and bowl with towel and breathe the vapor for several minues before going to bed.

REGULAR SESSION OF COUNCIL

Meeting Yesterday Morning Rather Stormy at Times—Long Drawn Out Discussion Occupied Nearly Two Hours

The City Council was in regular weekly session for nearly two hours yesterday morning. Most of the time was taken up with a discussion of the several matters that were brought up. The discussions were rather spirited at times. Immediately after adjournment the Council met in a conference for the purpose of reading the proposed new fire ordinance.

Members of Council seemed to be in just the right mood for a controversy. The discussion was started when the complaint of the Seaboard Air Line against the Wilmington Compress & Warehouse Co., occupying the foot of Harnett street with a warehouse came up for further consideration, having been deferred from the last meeting. Mayor Smith suggested that the matter be deferred until next Monday as he had been informed that notice of a hearing on the matter had not been given officers of the company. Councilman P. Q. Moore said that he was not going to make anybody else move off the street or sidewalk until some of those previously notified have been required to move. Councilman Perdew observed that it was the city's fault that the orders of Council in regard to the removal of obstructions had not been carried out. Councilman Tiencken thought that the persons, firms or corporations now using the public docks should be allowed to continue undisturbed until the Legislature meets and then secure authority from that body to lease the docks. He considered it unwise to require persons to remove at this time when the Legislature meets in two or three months.

Councilman B. C. Moore said if Council would give him the authority and make an appropriation to cover the cost he would instruct the chief of police to have the iron railing extending on the sidewalk on Princess, between Front and Second, removed and the open space filled in with dirt. He said that he would have the work done before night if given the authority. Mayor Smith said that Mr. James Owen Reilly, who has charge of the property, told him a few days ago that he had written to the owner asking what to do in the matter and expected an answer in a short time.

City Attorney Herbert McClammy made a few observations on the enforcement of the law relative to obstructions on the streets and sidewalks. He said that Council could not enforce the law against one and not against others, that to do so would be manifestly unfair. If Council is going to enforce the law, and it should be enforced, then the start should be made with those "higher up" and not with the little fellows. Mr. McClammy read from a decision of the United States Supreme Court relative to the use of streets and stated that the only way that Council could grant the use of the streets by individuals to the exclusion of others would be by an act of the Legislature. The law, he said, relative to obstructing streets is as old as the hills. Councilman Tiencken remarked that it was too old. Mr. McClammy replied that granting that this is so, the law should be enforced as long as it is a law and if a change is desired seek it through the Legislature.

Referring to Councilman B. C. Moore's suggestion to remove the railing on Princess street and fill in the opening with dirt, Councilman Tiencken said that he did not think the walls of the building were strong enough to hold the weight of the dirt thrown against them. City Attorney McClammy advised that if that is the condition the city building inspector should condemn the building and have it torn away.

Councilman P. Q. Moore inquired whose business it is to remove the obstructions and the city attorney replied that it was up to the chief of police. Councilman Perdew made a motion to the effect that Councilman B. C. Moore be authorized to remove the railing on Princess street and fill in the open space. The motion was seconded by Councilman B. C. Moore. Councilman P. Q. Moore voted in the negative on the ground that a similar resolution was adopted some weeks ago. Councilman Tiencken declined to vote, but Mayor Smith instructed that he be put down in the affirmative. Mayor Smith also voted in the affirmative. A few minutes later, when it was found by reference to the record of the proceedings of the body that a similar resolution had previously been adopted, Councilman B. C. Moore moved to reconsider. This was carried, leaving the matter where it was when Council convened, but with Councilman B. C. Moore's authority in the matter was clearly understood by all.

The second cause of a long and at times spirited discussion was the experimental culvert of concrete blocks construction on 14th street from Market to Princess. The culvert as originally planned was to cost about $1,000 and the city agreed to pay one-half of this amount, the balance to be paid by Messrs. Thos. H. Wright and R. H. Northrop, who own considerable property in that vicinity and who have been working for some time to have Macomber's ditch drained. The culvert has been completed and Messrs. Wright and Northrop were present to invite the Council as a body to visit and pass on the work. It was explained that owing to certain changes made by the city engineer in the original plans that the culvert cost about $1,250 instead of $1,000. Mr. Wright called attention of Council to the improvements that have been made in that end of the city by Mr. Northrop and himself, costing $10,000 or $15,000.

City Engineer Pillet said that he did not think much of the culvert as it had been constructed and would not recommend that the city go to the expense of improving the entire length of the ditch with a culvert constructed like the one on this block. His main objection was that the culvert as constructed has only the sand bottom instead of a concrete bottom, and he did not think the culvert would bear the weight of a heavy steamroller. Mr. Wright, Mr. Northrop and Mr. J. C. Herring, the concrete man, agreed that the culvert should have a concrete bottom, which would cost $200 or $300 a block more, but maintained that when it came to strength that it would hold most any weight that might be placed upon it. The main purpose of a concrete bottom would be to make it easier to wash out the culvert in the event it should become obstructed with sand.

Councilman P. Q. Moore said that before agreeing to pay the additional amount to provide a concrete bottom he desired Council to first ascertain where the money is coming from. Mr. Wright remarked that Councilman P. Q. Moore apparently had not taken much interest in the matter as he had been able to get him out there to look at the work only one time. This riled Councilman P. Q. Moore and he rather heatedly, saying that it was an unkind thrust to say the least, especially when he had done everything he could consistently do to aid the development being carried on by Messrs. Wright and Northrop and had gone out there any number of times, several times with Mr. Northrop, besides had sent the engineers there many times. Mr. Wright said that he thought he understood from Mr. Moore's own lips that he had not been on the work but one time, that if he had misunderstood him he would cheerfully apologize for his remark. He said that possibly Councilman P. Q. Moore had visited the work many times when he was not aware of it.

Councilman B. C. Moore suggested that Council go in a body to see the work and then hold a special meeting to decide whether or not the city will pay one-half of the total cost. Mayor Smith said that he was in favor of improving Macomber's ditch even if it was necessary, in order to get the funds, to return the park property in the southern part of the city and receive therefor the amount expended for the improvement of the street to that section, the amount being $22,000.

Mr. Herring stated that in putting in the experimental block of culvert it was not because he was hunting a job, as he had all the work he could do, but that the city wanted some economical yet effective method of draining the ditch and after being urged he decided to improve the one block to show what could be done with the concrete materal. He said that the work had been completed, it was ready for the inspection of the Council and engineer; that he was satisfied that it will answer every purpose of a more expensive work; that to show that his interest was altogether one of a person not hunting a job he said that if Council desired he would let the city have his patterns, so the contract for the work could be let to anybody.

After some further discussion Councilman Perdew offered a resolution to the effect that the city pay $725 of the cost of the block of culvert, provided the work is approved by the city engineer. This was unanimously adopted.

The following resolution was adopted without a dissenting vote:

"Whereas, the Board of Health of the City of Wilmington has from time to time condemned the use of Jacob's Run for sewer purposes on account of its being unsuited for such purposes and a menace to health and,

"Whereas, the city has not been in a position heretofore to offer the use of a public system of sewers in lieu of Jacob's Run and,

"Whereas, the city has now acquired an adequate system of public sewers,

"Therefore, be it ordained that the use of said Jacob's Run on and after the 1st day of January, 1913, be and is hereby prohibited.

"2. That all users of any sewers emptying in said run any any users of said run directly be notified by the superintendent of health and the Water and Sewerage Department and are hereby required to make immediate connections with a public system of sewers.

"3. The violation of this ordinance shall be punished by a penalty of $5 per day for each and every day on and after the 1st day of January, 1913."

Chief of Police Fowler recommended that the license to conduct a restaurant and soft drink place held by the following be revoked: E. B. Millis, Love's Alley and Nixon street; Geo. Cavano, Dock street, between Water and Front streets; Mrs. DePlacey, Fourth street, between Taylor and Howard. The licenses were revoked, but later upon motion of Councilman B. C. Moore Council voted to reconsider its action as to the license held by Mrs. DePlacey. Councilman Moore said that there had recently been some improvement in conditions around Mrs. DePlacey's store and if there were no further complaints he would have no objection to her keeping the license.

City Attorney McClammy was requested by Councilman Tiencken to institute suit against persons who have not paid the amount advanced by the city for improving the sidewalk in front of their property.

A request of Councilman P. Q. Moore for a fire alarm box at the city stables was referred to Councilman B. C. Moore, who stated that the box would be given just as soon as the new boxes are installed on Front street.

Members of Council remarked that the lights furnished the city by the Tidewater Power Co., do not seem to burn as brightly as formerly and they expressed the opinion that the usual amount of current is lacking. Mention was made especially of the Tungsten arch lights in the downtown district. The possibility of the city installing its own light plant was broached by Mayor Smith, who suggested that the plant might be installed at and operated in connection with the waterworks plant. Members of Council took kindly to this suggestion and it seemed to be the opinion of all that unless there is some improvement in the service furnished by the Tidewater Power Co., that arrangements for the city to install a plant will have to be made. It has recently been reported that there is some possibility of power being brought in here from Blewett's Falls, near Rockingham, to be used especially for operating manufacturing plants and it has been suggested that the city might contract with the company for its lights in the event a change is decided upon. The Blewett's Falls company will soon have its line to Lumberton, only 67 miles from here, completed.

Upon the recommendation of Councilman P. Q. Moore the contract for laying about 5,000 square yards of granolithic sidewalks was let to E. R. Austin at 98 1-2 cents a square yard, and the contract for cleaning and repainting Fifth street bridge was given to Mr. W. L. DeRosset for $123, they being the lowest bidders for the respective contracts. The paint is to be furnished by the city.

Mayor Smith suggested to Councilman B. C. Moore that he exercise the authority given him by Council some time ago and ascertain what the city can get for the fire station property at Fourth and Princess streets. Councilman Moore said that he would take up the matter at once.

A communication was received from Mr. A. B. Skelding, general manager of the Tidewater Power Company, calling attention to the fact that in most all large cities traffic regulations require all motor-driven vehicles in approaching or passing a street car to stop if the street car is a standstill. He said that by the adoption and enforcement of a regulation of this kind liability of accident to persons getting off the street cars would be greatly lessened. The communication was referred to Assistant City Attorney Geo. L. Peschau. In this connection Councilman Perdew called attention to the congested condition of the street at corner Front and Princess, due mainly, he said, to the fact that the three tracks of the street car company take up most of the space on Princess street, between Front and Second. The matter was referred to the chief of police.

Mr. J. S. Funchess and Mr. C. W. Nixon, of the Wilmington Ice & Storage Co., appeared before the body and asked permission for the A. C. L. to move a spur track on Dock street, between Water and Front, 18 inches nearer the sidewalk so as to ease the curve at Water and Dock streets. The spur track runs up to the plant of the company. The matter was referred to the city engineer and city attorney.

ARRANGE SOCIAL NIGHT

Members of the Boys' Brigade Will Entertain at Armory

The next event at the Boys' Brigade which will be of especial interest to the members will be a social evening which will be held next Monday night at the armory. It is planned to invite only the members of the institution and the members of their families, fathers, mothers, sisters, brothers and wives and a few sisters of other brothers. This promises to be a very enjoyable occasion as it will bring the members and their families together in a body and in a place where each will have a mutual interest and where all may be congenial and happy in an evening's pleasure.

An interesting programme of entertainment is being prepared consisting of music, speeches, refreshments and other features which will assist in giving pleasure. Every member has promised to be present and to bring "the old folks" with them and when all get together a crowd numbering upwards of 250 people will be assembled. The entertainment will be held in the auditorium at the armory, where some of the best known entertainers in the city have promised to meet and lend their assistance in making this the banner affair of the season at the armory.

DISTRICT MEETING AT WALLACE.

Odd Fellows Will Gather There November 12th—Delegates.

The semi-annual meeting of the Odd Fellows of this district will be held at Wallace on November 12th and promises to be largely attended. A number of Odd Fellows from the local lodges will be present. At the regular meeting Tuesday night Messrs. M. W. Jacobi, W. B. Moore and Robt. Robbins were elected as the delegates from Cape Fear Lodge, No. 2. Mr. Jacobi, who is chairman of the board of trustees of the Odd Fellows' Home at Goldsboro, made a most interesting talk on the home and the work being done there. The Odd Fellows were highly gratified at the showing made at the home as indicated by the remarks of Mr. Jacobi, who has just returned from a periodical visit to the institution.

PRAYER SERVICES TODAY

The Hospitals and Schools at Kiangjin, China, the Subject

The subject of the women's prayer meeing to be held this afternoon in the lecture room of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church under the auspices of the Wilmington Presbytery will be "Hospitals and Schools at Kiangjin, China." Mrs. W. H. Sprunt will be in charge of the service. The same subject will be studied at Delgado Presbyterian church at 7:30 tonight under the leadership of Mrs. Andrew J. Howell.

A very interesting service was held yesterday afternoon at Wrightsboro Presbyterian church, conducted by Mrs. W. A. Lineker, who made a fine address that was listened to with much interest. A number of ladies from the city were present.

Death of Little Son.

Many friends of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Williams will tenderly sympathize with them in the death of their 10-months-old son, Norwood L. Williams, which occurred at the family residence, No. 816 Chesnut street, at 4:25 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The funeral will be held from the residence at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon, conducted by Rev. Dr. J. H. Foster, and interment will be in Bellevue cemetery.

ANAEMIC PEOPLE

Need More Iron In Blood

If you are anaemic, you need more iron in your blood, and the tell-tale symptoms are a pale face—colorless lips, ashen finger nails, poor circulation, and short breath, and more serious diseases are easily contracted when in this condition.

What Vinol did for Mrs. G. S. Manuel, of San Antonio, Texas, it will do for every anaemic run-down person. She says: "I was weak and nervous and had general debility for about three years. My health was badly run-down and my complexion became sallow and badly affected with pimples. While in this weakened condition I contracted pleurisy, which made it very hard for me. I am happy to say that Vinol has restored me to health again, and I have no cough or soreness of the lungs at all."

We ask every anaemic or run-down, weak person in this vicinitiy to try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that their money will be returned if it does not do all we claim. R. R. Bellamy, druggist, Wilmington, N. C.

SPENT THE DAY IN WILMINGTON

Dr. Geo. H. F. Nuttal, Noted Scientist Of England, In This Section Studying Soil Pollution—Guest of Dr. C. W. Stiles

Dr. Geo. H. F. Nuttal, who is a member of the faculty of the University of Cambridge, England, recognized as one of the leading scientific men in the world, especially on parasitic diseases, spent several hours in the city yesterday, a guest of his old friend and college mate, Dr. Chas. W. Stiles, who has also achieved a wide reputation as a scientist, and left in the afternoon, accompanied by Dr. Stiles, to investigate conditions in the rural sections of this State with particular reference to soil pollution and its relation to parasitic diseases.

It was expected that Dr. Nuttal would be able to spend two or three days in the city, but he is pressed for time as he has several engagements yet to fill in the North before he sails on October 29th for England. Upon his arrival here yesterday morning Dr. Nuttal was met at the union station by Dr. Stiles, Dr. Chas. T. Nesbitt and one or two other physicians and was taken first to the Delgado mill village, just east of the city, where the distinguished visitor was shown the conditions that exist there. In many respects Delgado is a model mill village. Dr. Nuttal remarked to the physicians with him that from the reports that have been given out from various sources one would imagine that anaemia among the children of the factory towns of the South was caused from lint from the cotton, but this theory had been exploded by the discovery of hookworm disease by Dr. Stiles. The infected persons, after being treated, soon are restored to their normal condition. Dr. Nuttal was shown a number of persons in the mill village who had been infected with the disease, but were cured and are now as healthy looking as anyone could wish to find. The distinguished visitor was greatly impressed with the fine conditions he found at the mill village and remarked that what he had seen indicated to his mind that many exaggerated reports had been circulated about the harm that is being done the children because of work in cotton mills.

Following the inspection of the mill village, Dr. Nuttal was taken to the United State Marine Hospital, where Dr. Stiles is carrying on his research work. Dr. Nuttal displayed keen interest in the laboratory work there.

At 1 o'clock Dr. Stiles entertained at luncheon at The Orton in honor of his visitor. Besides Dr. Nuttal his guests were: Dr. G. G. Thomas, Dr. Chas. T. Nesbitt, Dr. R. B. Seem, Dr. Geo. W. Miller, of Washington, D. C., who is one of Dr. Stiles' assistants. Dr. Edward Jenner Wood and Dr. R. Harllee Bellamy were invited to be present, but were kept away on account of professional duties.

In the afternoon Dr. Nuttal visited the city health department, where he was acquainted with the work that has been done for the improvement of health conditions here during the past year and a half. Dr. Nuttal spoke very highly of the work that has been done and complimented the superintendent, Dr. Chas. T. Nesbitt, on the splendid system that he has inaugurated in the conduct of his department.

Dr. Nuttal, accompanied by Dr. Stiles, left in the afternoon for Mt. Tabor, Columbus county, where he will continue his study of soil pollution. They will visit a number of points in that vicinity so that Dr. Nuttal may make an investigation of hookworm infection in the rural communities and small towns.

He will not return to Wilmington, but will take a main line train probably at Florence for Boston. Dr. Nuttal's visit was greatly enjoyed by the physicians who met him while here and they all feel that they were greatly benefitted by having been with him even for a few hours.

BROOKLYN BAPTIST CHURCH.

Annual Business Meeting of the Congregation Last Night.

The annual business meeting of Brooklyn Baptist church was held last night with the paster, Rev. J. A. Sullivan, presiding. Reports of the officers for the past year were received and other business was transacted, but the election of officers for the ensuing year was postponed until next Wednesday night, when an adjourned meeting will be held.

The report of the treasurer showed that the collections for the year exceeded by $900 the amount of the budget prepared at the beginning of the year. This was a most gratifying showing. The budget for the ensuing year was prepared last night and the congregation will undertake to raise $200 more than the amount of the budget for the past year.

It was decided to increase the number of deacons from eight to twelve members and the new members will be elected next Wednesday night when other officers will be elected. The congregation voted to hold a revival meeting in the Spring.

The church is not only in good condition financially, but spiritually as well and interest and enthusiasm among the members of the congregation was never greater. Members hope to make the ensuing year the best in the history of the church.

Atlantic Trust & Banking Co., Will Encourage Boys in Corn Growing.

Mr. J. P. Herring, demonstration agent for New Hanover county for the farm demonstration work now being carried on in this State by the United States Agricultural Department, has received from Mr. Chas. N. Evans, president of the Southern National Bank and Atlantic Trust & Banking Company, a letter announcing that the latter bank will give a prize of $15 to the boy in the corn contest next season who makes the greatest profit per acre. The letter is as follows:

"Wilmington, N. C., Oct. 21, 1912.

"Mr. J. P. Herring, County Demonstrator, N. C. Agricultural Association, R. F. D. No. 2, City.

"Dear Sir:—We are considerably interested in the work you are undertaking to induce interest upon the part of the young men of this section in improved scientific cultivation of corn. We suppose you will arrange for a contest for next season, and we have decided to offer a prize of a $15 bank deposit in our company to the boy not younger than ten years or older than 18 years of age who makes the best profit per acre in producing corn in your contest.

"In determining this matter we will be guided solely and entirely by an official letter from you designating the successful contestant.

Little Daughter Passes.

Rosetta Morris, the 19-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Morris, of Lumberton, died at 5:20 o'clock yesterday morning at the home of Mrs. Morris' sister, Mrs. L. B. Woodbury, No. 712 North Fourth street, after an illness of some days of gastritis. Mrs. Morris and little daughter were here on a visit when the child was taken ill. The little one was not considered dangerously ill until Saturday, but from time to time on until the end she sank gradually. Mr. Morris came in response to a message telling him of the serious condition of the little one. The body was removed yesterday to the home of the child's grandfather, Mr. J. T. Kerr, at Acorn Branch, and the funeral will be held from Acorn Branch Methodist church at 11 o'clock this morning, conducted by Rev. W. L. Rexford, pastor of Bladen Street Methodist church. The interment will be in the church graveyard. Many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Morris will tenderly sympathize with them in their bereavement.

Revised Plans Approved

At a meeting yesterday at noon of the directors and trustees of the Y. M. C. A., the revised plans for the new Y. M. C. A., were approved. As will be seen by an advertisement in today's Star, bids have already been asked for by the building committee, of which ex-Mayor Wm. E. Springer is chairman. It is the purpose of the directors and trustees to provide an auditorium in the new building if the bids come within the amount the association has to be put in the structure.

HIS BROTHER KILLED

Fatal Shooting at Bolton, N. C., Tuesday Night—Remains Here.

David Pridgen, a respected young colored man of this city, employed in the press and mailing rooms of The Morning Star, received a telegram yesterday announcing the killing of his brother, Jeff Pridgen, 21 years old, at Bolton, N. C., where he was employed, Tuesday night. The telegram gave no particulars except that his assailant made his escape. Alonzo Pridgen, another brother, employed in the railroad yards in this city, went up to Bolton yesterday afternoon to bring the remains to Wilmington, where they will be prepared for burial and later taken to Rocky Point for interment. The young man leaves several brothers and sisters and an aged mother, living at Rocky Point, upon whom his tragic death will fall as a very heavy blow.

MARRIAGE OF MR. FONZIE SMITH AND MISS STRICKLAND

Of interest to many friends in this city was the marriage last night at 8:30 o'clock at the rectory of St. Mary's Pro-Cathedral of Mr. Fonzie Lee Smith and Miss Mary Eleanor Strickland, daughter of Mr. S. D. Strickland, of this city. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Dennen and the event was attended by a number of friends of the couple. The bride, who was handsomely attired in white satin trimmed in real lace and carried white chrysanthemums, was given away by her brother-in-law, Capt. J. Wallace West. Miss Bessie Clyde Strickland, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Mr. A. L. Council, of Council's was best man. Mr. and Mrs. Smith will live at No. 312 Campbell street. The groom is an engineer on the Atlantic Coast Line and has a wide circle of friends in this city and elsewhere, and his bride is a most popular and attractive young lady.

THE LADIES WILL GIVE BIG HOSPITAL BENEFIT.

A number of Wilmington ladies who have seen and know many little needs that will make the James Walker Memorial Hospital brighter and better for those who are so unfortunate as to require hospital treatment have secured from Mr. J. M. Solky, the proprietor, the courtesy of an all-day benefit at the Grand Theatre and the date will be November 5th. This announcement was made yesterday and the ladies in charge are going right ahead with a determination to make this benefit a magnificent success, confidently expecting that all friends of the hospital and the general public will resolve at once to buy their tickets for that day from them. These ladies have already done much to assist the superintendent to make the hospital life of patients brighter and better and in this benefit they hope to provide themselves with the means of doing even greater things. The halls they hope to make attractive, sick room trays will be provided and the sitting room for convalescents will be made bright and attractive. It is a work that should enlist the hearty encouragement of everyone and the ladies ask the public to kindly remember the date and assist them with their patronage.

PRETTY LINEN SHOWER FOR AN OCTOBER BRIDE.

Warsaw, N. C., Oct. 23.—One of the most beautiful social functions of the season was the linen shower given Tuesday evening by Mrs. A. B. Baines, at her lovely home on Hill street, in honor of Miss May C. Moore, who, on the 30th is to become the bride of Mr. Lester B. Townsend, of Lumberton, N. C.

The spacious hall was brilliantly ablaze with October reds, softened by candle light and lamps with pink shades, while the drawing room and dining room were mellow with Southern smilax, La France roses and pink candles. The refreshments were also in pink and white with an artistic touch of white.

Mrs. Baines, attired in an exquisite linegrie dress, with Miss Sallie Bowden gowned in lavender messaline with dewdrop overdress, greeted the guests at the door and presented them to Miss Moore, who was charmingly attired in white marquisette over ping messaline.

After a very interesting magazine contest Mesdames W. L. Hill and C. D. Chambers were presented with a beautiful prize, which they presented to the guest of honor.

The guests were then ushered into the dining room, beautiful in its decorations of pink and white, with a profusion of cut flowers and ferns and there under the soft glow of many candles toasted the bride with the many happy experiences of married life.

But the most interesting event was reserved until the last, when the prospective bride stood in the center of the room to witness the balloon ascension—just then, the parachute was cut—and down came a flurry of beautiful gifts, comprising much hand embroidery and crochet work.

About 50 partook of the hospitality of Mrs. Baines, and before leaving each guest wrote her favorite receipt and pasted it in the "Bride's Book", presented by the winners of the contest.

REV. F. B. CLAUSEN AND FAMILY FORMALLY WELCOMED

Rev. F. B. Clausen, the new pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran church, and his family were most cordially welcomed by the congregation at a reception given at Luther Memorial Building last night. The event was attended by 300 or more members of the congregation and friends, and was thoroughly enjoyed by all. The auditorium was very attractively decorated with flowers and potted plants, and a very pleasing programme was rendered.

The programme opened with a piano solo by Miss Duls, followed by a vocal solo by Mr. Chas. Schulken; violin solo by Mr. Kenneth Otten and Mrs. H. F. Otten; recitation by Miss Augusta Gieschen; vocal solo, Miss Louise Vollers; whistling solo, Miss Elizabeth Otten, with violin accompaniment by Mr. Kenneth Otten; vocal quintette, by Mrs. J. H. Rehder, Mrs. J. T. Runge, Mrs. H. F. Otten, Miss Augusta Gieschen, Miss Louise Vollers. While all the numbers were exceedingly pleasing and well rendered, the recitation of Miss Augusta Gieschen deserves special mention.

The pastor was formally welcomed to the congregation by Mr. Henry E. Bonitz, in a short but very happy address. Mr. Clausen responded and thanked the congregation most heartily for their cordial greeting. Following the addresses, refreshments were served and those present spent a most delightful social hour together. The several committees which had the affair in charge were highly complimented upon the great success of the event, the plans for which were carried out with the utmost precision. Mrs. J. T. Runge was chairman of the general committee, and much of the credit for the enjoyable affair is due to her efforts.

PRETTY HOME WEDDING ON YESTERDAY EVENING.

One of the prettiest wedding of the early Autumn in Wilmington was the marriage at 6 o'clock yesterday evening of Miss Katie Rourk, the charming and attractive young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Rourk, of this city, and Mr. R. B. Clark, a popular young business man of Galveston, Texas, interested with his father, Mr. R. P. Clark, president and general manager of the Bowers Southern Dredging Company, which recently held one of the large government contracts on the lower Cape Fear river.

The scene of the marriage was the hospitable home of the bride's parents, No. 510 South Front street, and although no cards for the wedding were sent out, the ceremony, which was impressively performed by the Rev. J. H. Foster, D. D., pastor of the First Baptist church, was witnessed by quite a number of friends of the young people to the marriage vows and of the families concerned in the pleasing affair.

The home was beautifully decorated with palms, ferns and a profusion of plants and flowers, the marriage scene being a very pretty one indeed. The large front parlor of the home lent itself most admirably to an artistic decoration of palms, Southern smilax and white carnations, the west end of the room having been transformed into a perfect bower of plants and flowers, forming a background for the wedding scene, the bride and groom kneeling for the vows upon a cushion of white satin. The ring ceremony was used, the bride and groom having entered from the hall to the strains of a bridal chorus from Lohengrin, while Mendelssohn's Spring song was delightfully rendered as the impressive ceremony was spoken. Mendelssohn's Wedding March was used as a recessional, the music being by Miss Agnes Barnett. The only attendants were four pretty little ribbon children in the persons of Master Thomas Henderson Rourk, a brother of the bride; Miss Victoria Gore Rourk, a sister of the bride; Miss Julia Worth Stone, the attractive little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Stone, and little Miss Minnie Wescott Clayton, the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Clayton. These were daintily dressed in white and formed in the parlor two columns of white satin ribbon through which the bride and groom passed to the improvised altar where the vows were so impressively spoken by Dr. Foster.

The bride was most attractively gowned in a becoming going-away gown of navy blue with hat and gloves to match. She carried an exquisitely beautiful shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and bride's roses, caught with real lace.

Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Clark received the happiest felicitations of the hosts of the friends assembled and later in the midst of a shower of rice, departed for the union station, whence they departed on the northbound Atlantic Coast Line train for a bridal tour North, returning from which they will go to Galveston, Texas, which will be their home in the future.

Though no cards were issued, the large number of beautiful presents gave slight evidence of the high esteem in which the bride and groom are held in the circle of their acquaintance. These were displayed last evening in the library of the home, where the decorations were of American beauty roses.

A number of ante-nuptial social events were given in honor of the young people, the bridal party having been entertained most beautifully on Tuesday evening by Miss Mamie Brooks, at the pretty home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Brooks, at Carolina Heights. Yesterday an eight-course dinner was given by Mr. and Mrs. Rourk at their home in honor of the wedding party and of Mr. R. P. Clark, father of the groom, and Miss Bertha Clark, a sister, who came from Galveston to attend the nuptials.

The bride and groom have a host of friends in Wilmington, who express the hope that they will visit North Carolina frequently and make their visits of long duration. Many Wilmington friends of the bride sincerely regret to give her up, but can congratulate Mr. Clark upon the exceeding good fortune which is his.

Mrs. E. P. Dixon Bereaved.

Many friends will sympathize with Mrs. E. P. Dixon in the death of her mother, Mrs. Catherine Forbes, which occurred at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon at her home at Washington, N. C. Mrs. Forbes had been an invalid for a number of years and her death was not altogether unexpected, although the realization of her passing came as a great shock to her loved ones and friends. Mrs. Dixon was called to the bedside of her mother several days ago and was with her when the end came. Mrs. Forbes was 75 years old and besides Mrs. Dixon is survived by three children, these being Mrs. J. M. Potts, Mr. S. B. Forbes and Mr. Selby Forbes.

—Mr. Fred A. Hull, of Asheville, National Bank examiner, has been spending several days here on a regular visit to the local National banks.

Mason, also a young white man, charged with a similar offense, was declared not guilty. Noble Evans, colored, paid $5 and costs for riding his bicycle without a light. Evans is the negro who struck Mr. W. A. Martin with his bicycle a few nights ago. A case against James Walton, white, charged with violating the prohibition law, was continued until Saturday on account of the absence of the prosecuting witness.

THIS WOMAN'S TROUBLES GONE

Terrible Cramps, Dizzy Spells Nervousness, Misery—Her Story of How She Got Well Again.

Hindsboro, Ill.—"Your remedies have relieved me of all my troubles. I would have such bearing down misery and cramps and such weak, nervous, dizzy spells that I would have to go to bed. Some days I could hardly stay up long enough to get a meal.

"The doctor's medicine did me no good so I changed to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and got good results from the first bottle. I kept on taking it and used the Sanative Wash with it, until I was well again. I think every woman who suffers as I have, could take no better medicine."—Mrs. CHARLES MATTISON, Box 58, Hindsboro, Ill.

Testimony of Trained Nurse.

Cathlamet, Wash.—"I am a nurse and when I do much lifting I have a female weakness, but I take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I cannot say enough in praise of it. I always recommend it for female troubles."—Mrs. ELVA BARBER EDWARDS, Box 54, Cathlamet, Wash.

The makers of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound have thousands of such letters as those above—they tell the truth, else they could not have been obtained for love or money. This medicine is no stranger—it has stood the test for years.

..Theatrical..

In "Introduce Me", the four-act comedy which the Academy will present tomorrow night, the family troubles of George Nichols, an unsuccessful author, are depicted in an unusually interesting and clever manner. The play was written by Della Clarke, the clever author-actress, and she appears in the star role of the cast of characters. The play is written with a moral which is plainly apparent to everyone, and the closest attention of the audience is held throughout the performance. It is a play founded on real life, and abounds in rich humor and heart interest. After her husband's failure, Mrs. Nichols assumes the name of Frances Everton, and entirely unknown to husband, writes a book, entitled "Susan", that meets with great success. It is finally decided to have the book dramatized by Mr. Nichol. Mr. and Mrs. Nichol become estranged and it is not until the night that the first performance of the play is to be given that they make up. There are many strikingly comical instances brought about before the reconciliation is affected. A number of well known people appear in the cast of characters with Miss Clarke, among them being Luella Smith, Hattie Nevfile, Harriet Kingston, Pauline Woodward, P. S. Whitham, Gordon De Maine, G. S. Payton and William Barber.

Seats are now on sale at Plummer's.

Jolly "Alma" Twice Saturday.

In "Alma, Where Do You Live?" which is to be seen at the Academy Saturday, matinee and night (seats now selling at Plummer's), Mr. Joseph M. Weber, the producer of the Americanized version has secured one of the biggest hits in the field of musical comedy. So much of a success was it, in fact, that it ran for an entire season at the little theatre at Broadway and 28th street, which bears his name. Orinigally a French vaudeville it found its way to America in the German and was given for many months at Adolph Phillips' Theatre. It was then put into English at Mr. Weber's command by Mr. Geo. V. Hobart, one of the best of the native adapters of French plays, and proved to be an immediate success when given under the comedian manager's direction. The plot of the play has to do with Pierre, a country boy who will inherit a large fortune if he makes no matrimonial proposal before reaching the age of majority. Should he do so, however, the money is to go to others. He comes to Paris to hear the reading of the will the day before he is of age and it is then that he first learns of the legacy and its conditions. So far he has not violated them. Alma, a milliner, appears on the scene and is induced by those who hope to secure the money to trap the boy into a proposal; but she really falls in love with Pierre and while she tries to win his affections keeps him out of the pitfalls of Paris and prevents a proposal until the 24 hours have elapsed when she then accepts him. Other characters in the farce include a gay old father and his prospective son-in-law, a comic detective and a blustering foreigner who is in love with Alma. This plot has enabled Mr. Hobart to concoct a most amusing farce with unflagging fun and humorous situations, and this in addition to the music by Jean Briquet forms a most pleasing evening's entertainment. A first-class production of the play is promised by Mr. Weber. The company is headed by Miss Grace Drew, a pleasing prima donna, who was the original in "The Chocolate Soldier."

The Gorgeous "Pink Lady."

Klaw and Erlanger will present their interpational musical comedy de luxe, "The Pink Lady", at the Academy next Monday night. This is the only engagement of the biggest musical hit of the decade in this vicinity. That it will be appreciated is already evidenced by the advance taking through the mail orders.

"The Pink Lady" comes here with an established reputation and it is promised that it will live up to every expectation. The piece after a brief try-out en tour was originally presented in New York about a year ago and ran at the New Amsterdam Theatre there for 400 performances without a break, and later was presented at the Globe Theatre, London, England, where our foreign cousins' enthusiasm was so marked that today six "Pink Lady" companies are now touring every civilized part of the globe.

Its record bespeaks a wonderful vogue for "The Pink Lady" and when you see it the reasons are apparent. It is the happiest combination of book and music yet devised for stage entertainment of the light opera sort and to this Klaw & Erlanger have added a production which for breadth, class and harmony is a standard work within its happy limitations.

The book and lyrics are by C. M. S. McLellan, who adapted them from the French farce, "Le Satyre", by Georges Berr and Marcel Guillemaud. Ivan Caryll composed the accompanying score. In this he reached the acme of popularity with his tuneful and catchy "My Beautiful Lady" waltz, which has served to establish the fame of the piece, but in all there are 17 other numbers and each is a delight of its kind. An orchestra of selected musicians is used to give the music the necessary touch and go. This is but a feature indicative of what can be expected of "The Pink Lady" on the whole. A company of 100 people is seen in the production, including the Pink of Perfection chorus.

The company carries its own superb orchestra of twenty. Seats will go on sale at Plummer's tomorrow.

At the Grand Theatre.

At the Grand Theatre today Mr. Leonard Chick will sing that catchy little song, by Berlin & Snyder, entitled "Take a Little Tip From Father." No doubt many Wilmington people have heard this song and others will want to hear it. Mr. Chick sings this number in truly artistic style and it should not be missed by enthusiastic patrons of the Grand.

In the moveys for today the big feature will be a big double comedy by Lubin, "Meeting Mamie's Mother," and "Rube's Mistake." Farmer Cy Pettingale is informed that a tramp is around the farm and loads his gun with rock salt and lets it go, not at a hobo, but a city chap and spoils the trousers of a guest who is visiting at a farm close by. The other part of this film is the story of a pretty little shrew who makes life miserable for Josh Bentham. Then in addition to these two there will be still a third and it is a Biograph of surpassing beauty and sensation. It is entitled "In the Aisles of the Wild", and depicts the terrible result of a woman's whim. The characters are a widower and two daughters who live in the wilds of the North woods. They form an acquaintance with two trappers, Bob Cole and Jim Watson. Fate decrees that both trappers shall love the same girl. The decision is hard and what becomes of it is vividly and strikingly told in the picture.

These pictures are put on with all realistic effects and with full orchestral accompaniment. Nowhere under the sun is more for the money offered than at the Grand and patrons today will find the bill especially attractive.

At The Bijou

"Every day better than the one before," seems to be the motto of the live, popular Bijou, and though such may seem impossible, due to the already high excellence the Bijou has reached, yet it likely is a reality, as the Bijou management is ever alert and always enterprising; hence, surprises are invariably being sprung at this favorite amusement spot. Yesterday's bill was an artistic triumph, and great crowds were on hand to be delighted, and delighted, immensely so, they were, too.

Today's bill is going to be another brilliant success, and it will be headed by the Vitagraph's latest and cleverest. It is "Every Inch a Man" and besides telling a virile, snappy story, it presents in the cast some well-known Thespians. The star parts will be handled by that dashing young actor, Wallace Reid, and that charming and talented actress, Miss Rose Tapley, and they have two of the best roles they have ever portrayed. It is a story of both Western and city life, and tells how young "Robert Chapman" longs to become a detective. His father objects, and arranges with a detective agency to "put up a job" on his son, but the son foils them and comes out with flying colors. But he understands that his old mother longs for him back home, so he is "Every Inch a Man" and returns home.

The newest Biograph, "The Chief's Blanket," is also a swell topliner today, and it tells an interesting, novel Indian story, with plenty of thrills.

There are other photoplays, of course, and they are dandies. Today's bill is a costly affair, but the price of admission always remains at 5 cents.

FUNERAL OF MRS. MILLS.

Sad Services Held From the Late Residence Yesterday.

In the presence of a large concourse of sorrowing relatives and sympathizing friends, impressive funeral services were held at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon from the late residence, in East Wilmington, in honor of the memory of Mrs. Margaret Foreman Mills, wife of Mr. W. H. Mills, whose death occurred Tuesday evening. The services were conducted by Rev. Dr. A. D. McClure, pastor of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, and interment was in Bellevue cemetery. Many beautiful floral designs attested the high esteem in which Mrs. Mills was held in the community. The pall-bearers were Messrs. W. E. Springer, Oscar Pearsall, Thos. M. Simmons, E. Norfleet, D. F. Klein and R. F. Beasley.

COTTON ABOUT UNCHANGED HEAVY EXPORTS HELP WHEAT STOCKS PUT TO SEVERE TEST

Better Weather Map Than Expected Caused Deal of Selling in the Market, But Buying on Decline Started Recovery.

New York, Oct. 23.—Rather a better weather map than expected caused a deal of selling in the cotton market today, but the trade was reported to be buying on the decline and last prices showed a recovery of several points, with the closing tone steady, at a decline of 1 to 4 points under liquidation which seemed to be inspired by the fact that the weather news failed to show as much frost in the South as suggested by the predictions of the previous day. Buying by trade interests and houses with foreign connections caused some irregularity after the call, but rallies were comparatively limited and following the Western belt forecast for fair and warmer weather, the market again turned easy.

Trading was fairly active at the start, but became comparatively quiet, after the close of Liverpool, while the market gradually eased off under local pressure and Southern selling, until active months were from 8 to 10 points net lower. The Eastern belt forecast for light frosts appeared to attract no special attention, but large trade interests were credited with buying on the decline, and the market in the later trading rallied 7 to 8 points from the lowest on this support, covering of shorts and reports of a steady Southern spot situation. Rumors of financial troubles abroad were circulating during the afternoon and may have caused some selling from Wall Street sources, but offerings were not heavy in the late trading and appeared to be readily absorbed.

Spot closed quiet. Middling uplands, 10.95; do. gulf, 11.20. Sales, 100 bales.

Futures closed steady.

Recurrent Waves of Foreign Liquidation Affects Local Market—Avalanche of Selling Orders Results in Declines

New York, Oct. 23.—The local stock market was put to another severe test today by recurrent waves of foreign liquidation. The movement gathered its greatest momentum during the noon hour, when an avalanche of selling orders from various European points resulted in a series of precipitate declines. Canadian Pacific was the weakest of the high grade issues, declining over four points, and giving color to rumors of enforced liquidation by Berlin and Vienna.

The opening here was not altogether reassuring, a majority of the better known stocks recording slight losses. The only noted exceptions were Chino Copper and Chino Convertible bonds, these issues ascending to new high records on rumors that the stock is soon to be put on a dividend basis.

In the final hour prices recovered in part from the low level, but with dealings in restricted volume. Fully one-third of the day's business was transacted on the declining movement at midday.

The unfavorable condition of the local banks was shown in the hardening of time loans, 6 per cent. being asked for 90-day accommodations and four months money advanced ¼ per cent. Call money held around 5 per cent., with some concessions at the close.

Bonds turned heavy, with stocks after early steadiness. Total sales, par value, were $1,400,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call.

Total sales today, 844,200 shares.

AVIATOR MITCHELL KILLED.

Lost Control of Machine While Making Spiral Glide.

Montgomery, Ala., Oct. 23.—Aviator Louis Mitchell, whil 200 feet in the air, lost control of his machine in making a spiral glide here today and was killed when his machine plunged to earth.

Mitchell had been circling the exposition grounds for more than an hour at varying heights. As he began his descent in a spectacular glide, he lost control of his machine, and at 200 feet the aeroplane went to pieces. Mitchell was pinned to the ground under the heavy motor, dying before surgeons could reach the spot.

Aviator Heth, Mitchell's partner, who was above Mitchell with a passenger, and was about to descend in a spiral glide, saw the accident, but succeeded in landing safely.

Mitchell's body will be taken to his home at Camden, Ark., tomorrow morning. His wife, who was present, in the grand stand, did not see the accident.

Catarrh Cannot Be Cured

with LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrh is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure is not a quack medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing catarrh. Send for testimonials, free.
